

BANGALORE DISTRICT.

The 13th May 1899.

It is hereby notified that in satisfaction of arrears of land revenue due by Venkatramaiya, son of Munisamiah of Chaudanahalli, and others, revenue defaulters, the undermentioned immovable property will be sold by public auction at the office of the Amildar of the Devanahalli taluk, Bangalore district, on the 21st June 1899. The sale will commence at 11 A. M. and the property will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. The amount of revenue payable by the purchaser on the property for the whole of the year 1898-99 is Rs. 66-4-6 as shown in detail in the statement at foot.

3. Purchasers will be required to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within 15 days from the day of the sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the property shall be re-sold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. Persons bidding at a sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals, otherwise their bids may be rejected.

6. The sale shall be stayed, if the defaulter or any person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the property, tenders the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest and other charges, provided such tender be made before the property is knocked down.

7. The sale of the property will not become absolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Deputy Commissioner.

8. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed by the Deputy Commissioner, be placed in immediate possession and the property will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description or in estimated extent.

9. Provided parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale, shall be at liberty to appeal to the Deputy Commissioner within 30 days from the day of sale, and also to appeal to Government against his order within the time prescribed by law, and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.
